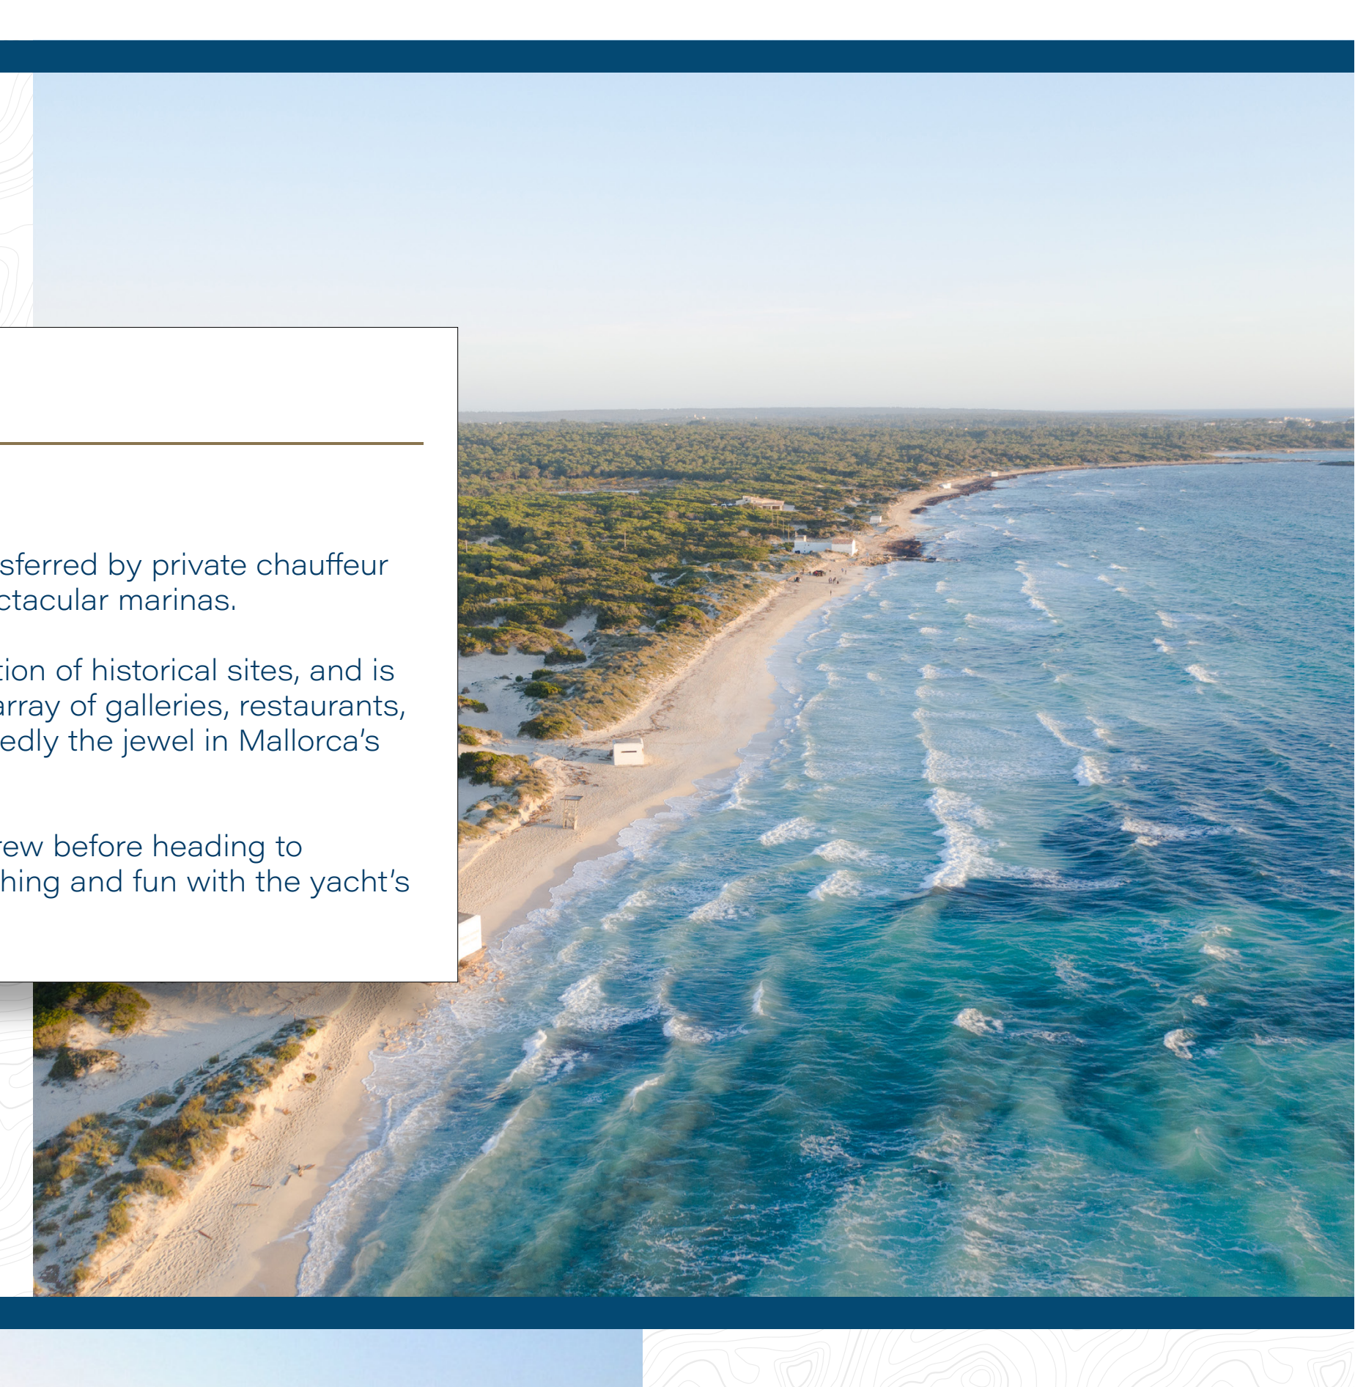
DAY 1

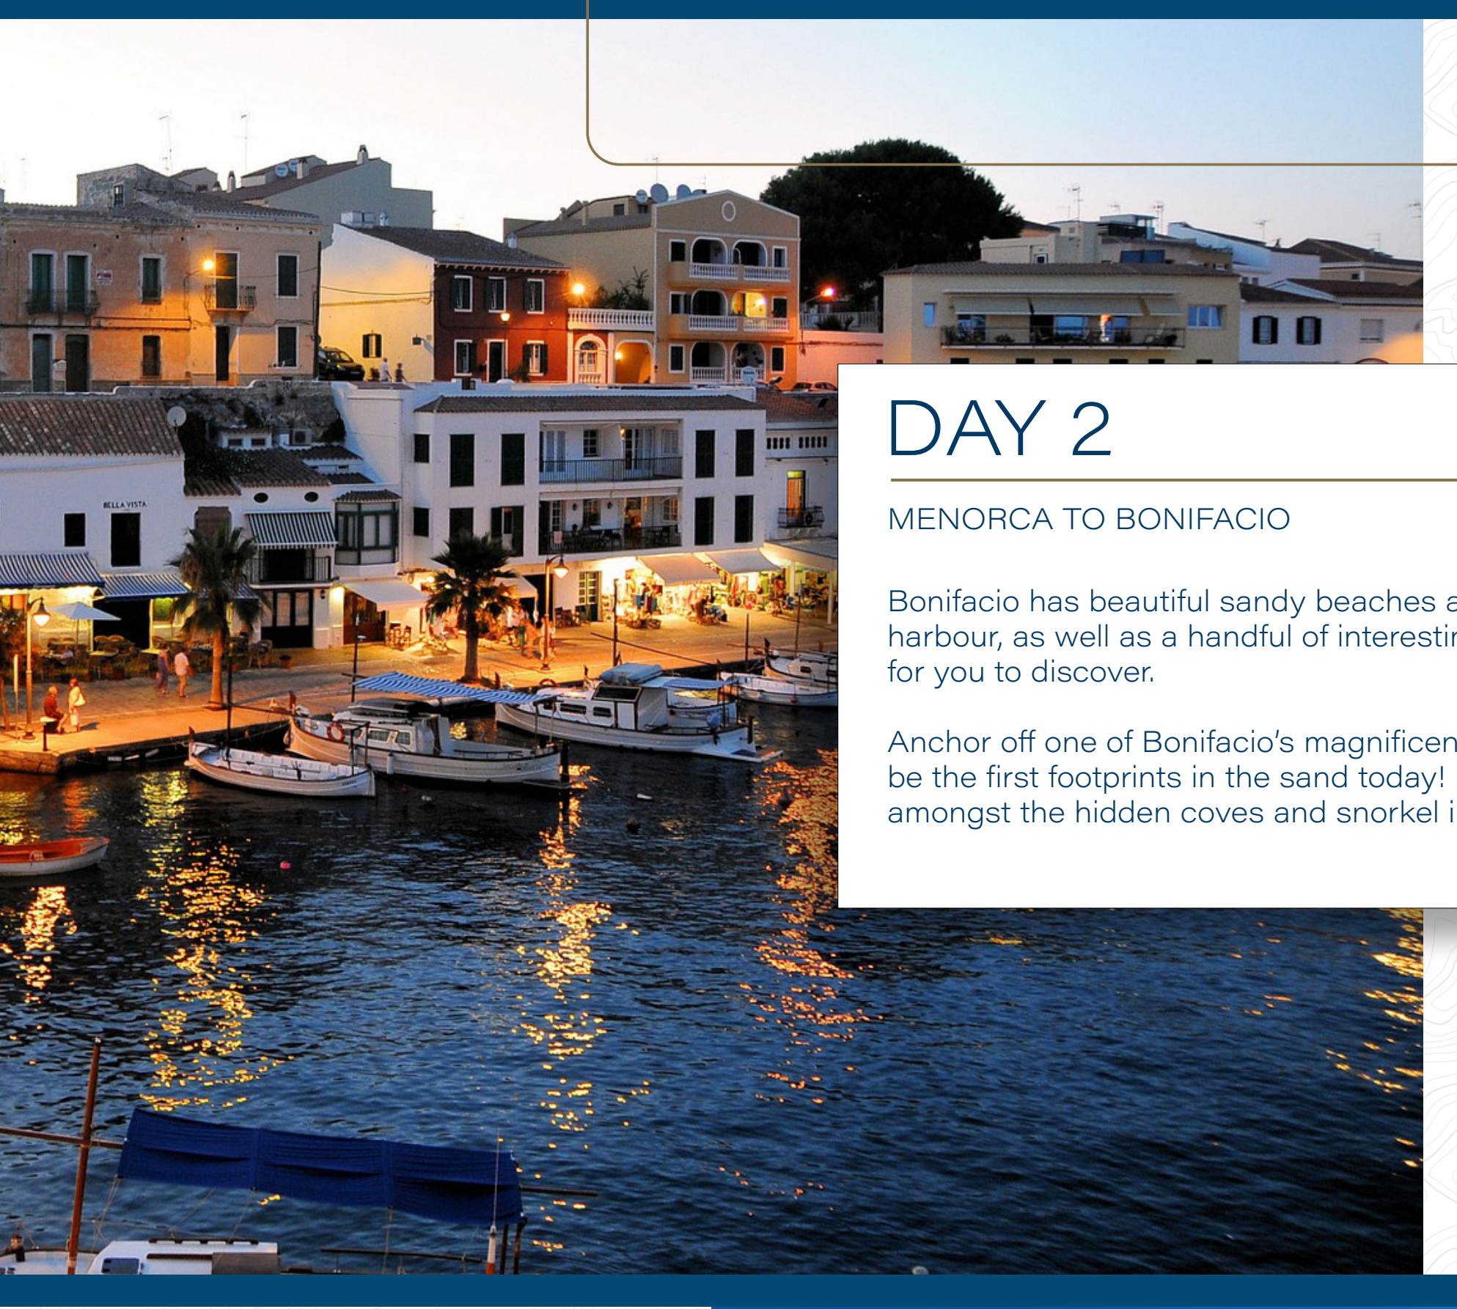
PALMA TO MENORCA

On arrival in Palma, you will be transferred by private chauffeur to your yacht in one of Palma's spectacular marinas.

The capital offers a beautiful collection of historical sites, and is also home to a seemingly endless array of galleries, restaurants, craft studios and bars. It is undoubtedly the jewel in Mallorca's crown.

Settle in on board and meet your crew before heading to Menorca for an afternoon of sunbathing and fun with the yacht's water toys.





DAY 2

MENORCA TO BONIFACIO

Bonifacio has beautiful sandy beaches and an impressive modern harbour, as well as a handful of interesting churches and museums for you to discover.

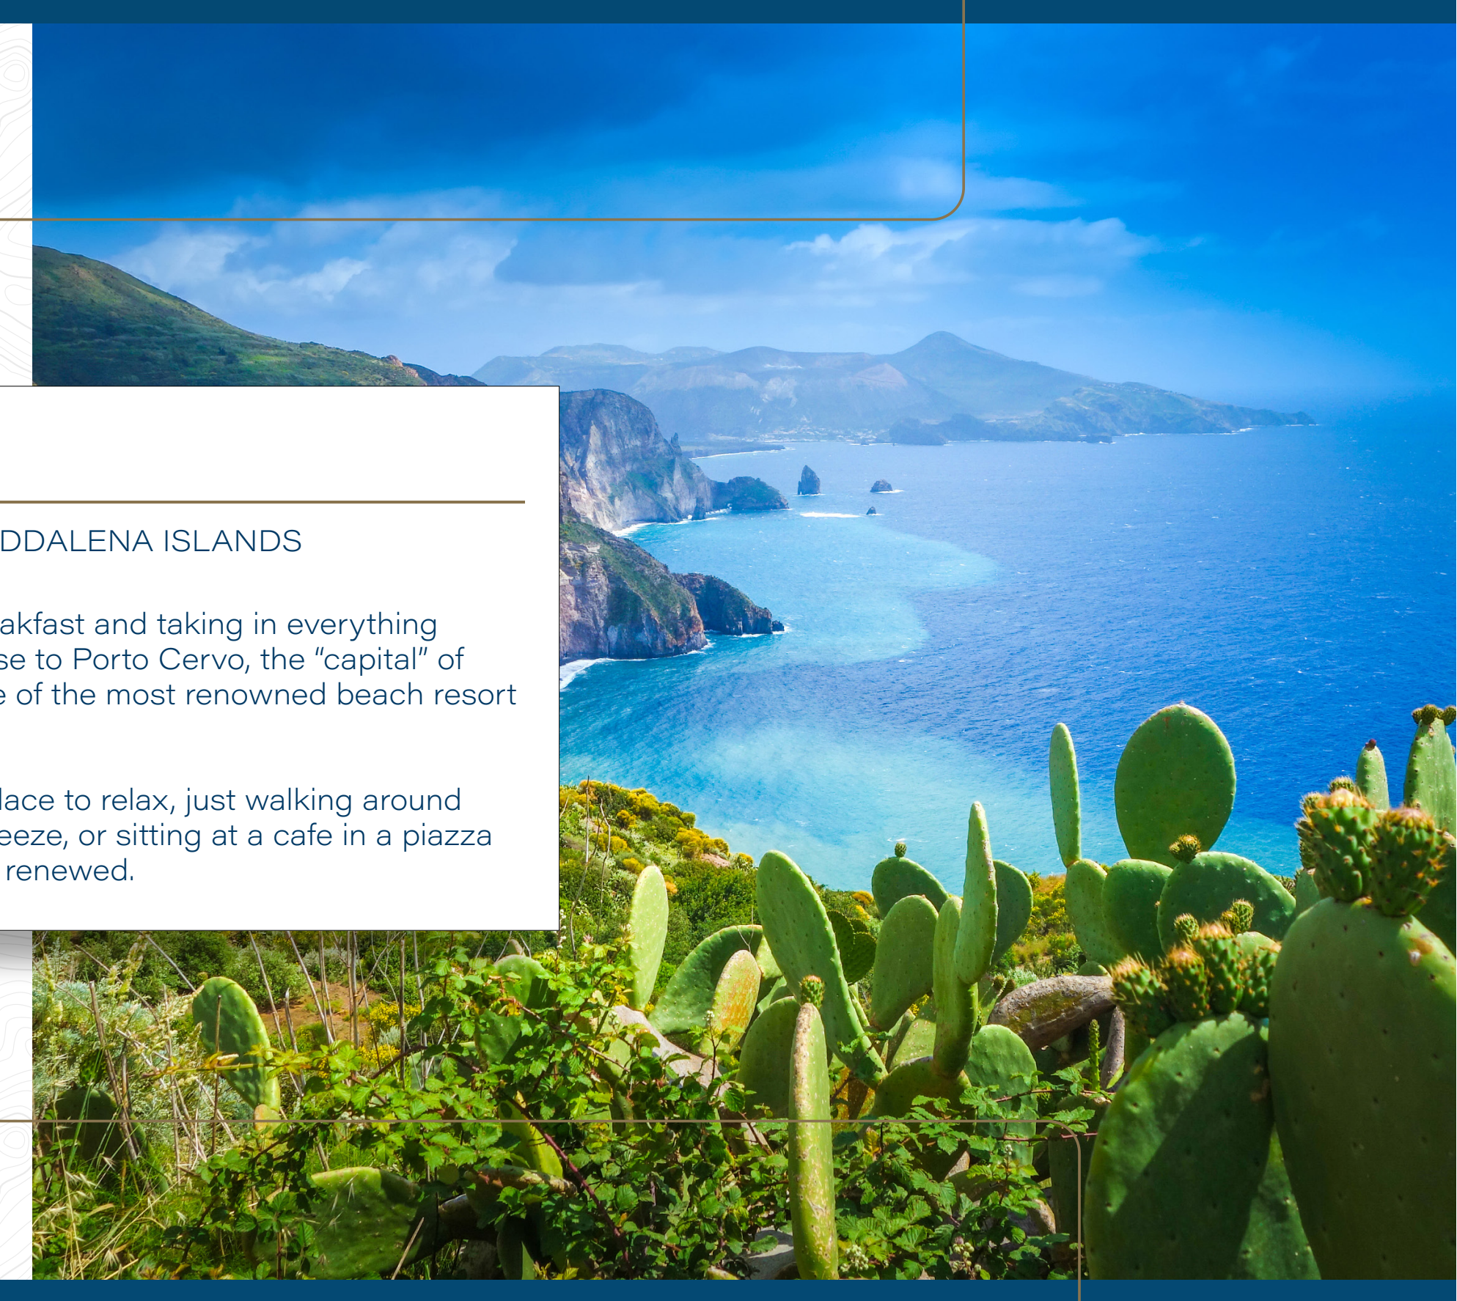
Anchor off one of Bonifacio's magnificent beaches, yours may be the first footprints in the sand today! Kayak or paddle board amongst the hidden coves and snorkel in the crystal-clear waters.

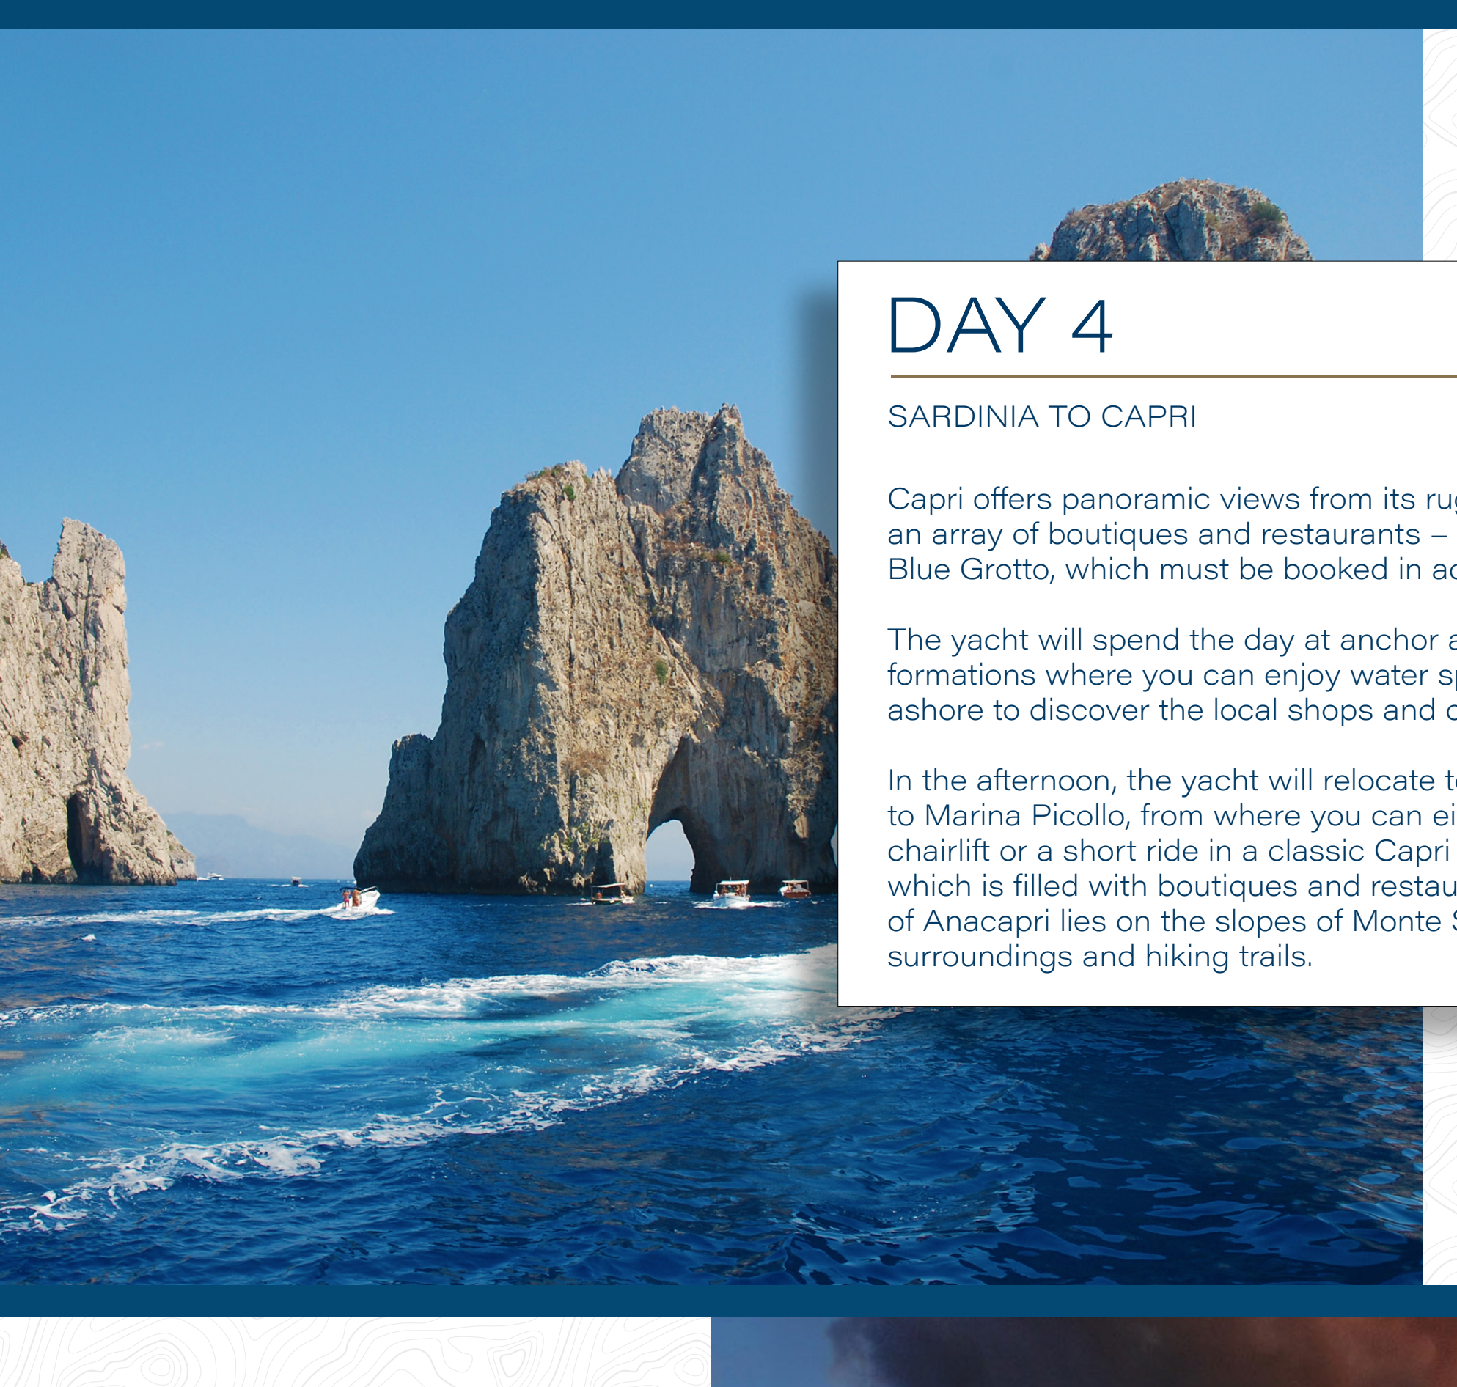
DAY 3

PORTO CERVO & THE MADDALENA ISLANDS

After enjoying a relaxing breakfast and taking in everything Maddalena has to offer, cruise to Porto Cervo, the "capital" of the Costa Smeralda and one of the most renowned beach resort towns in Italy.

Porto Cervo is the perfect place to relax, just walking around town, taking in the ocean breeze, or sitting at a cafe in a piazza will leave you refreshed and renewed.





DAY 4

SARDINIA TO CAPRI

Capri offers panoramic views from its rugged steep cliffs and has an array of boutiques and restaurants – be sure to visit the magical Blue Grotto, which must be booked in advance.

The yacht will spend the day at anchor at the iconic Faraglioni rock formations where you can enjoy water sports or take the tender ashore to discover the local shops and cafes.

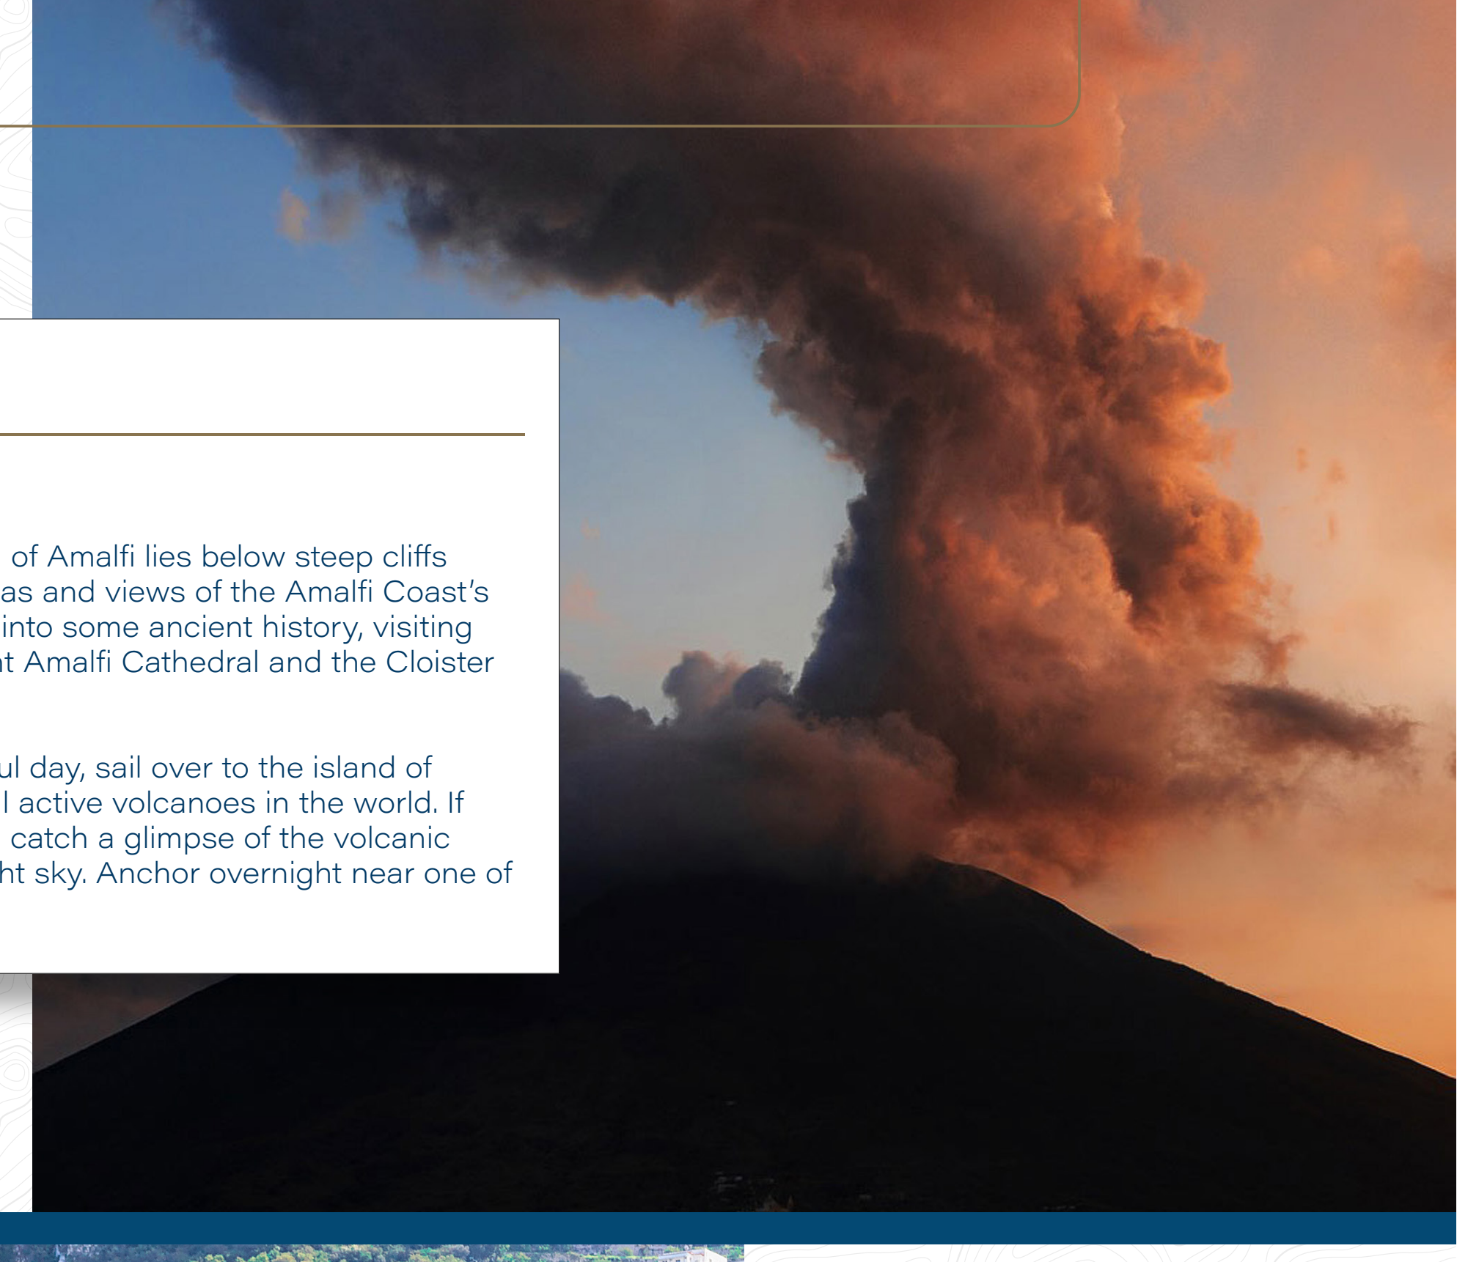
In the afternoon, the yacht will relocate to the south side of Capri to Marina Picollo, from where you can either take the Monte Solaro chairlift or a short ride in a classic Capri taxi to the main piazza, which is filled with boutiques and restaurants. The second town of Anacapri lies on the slopes of Monte Solaro and offers peaceful surroundings and hiking trails.

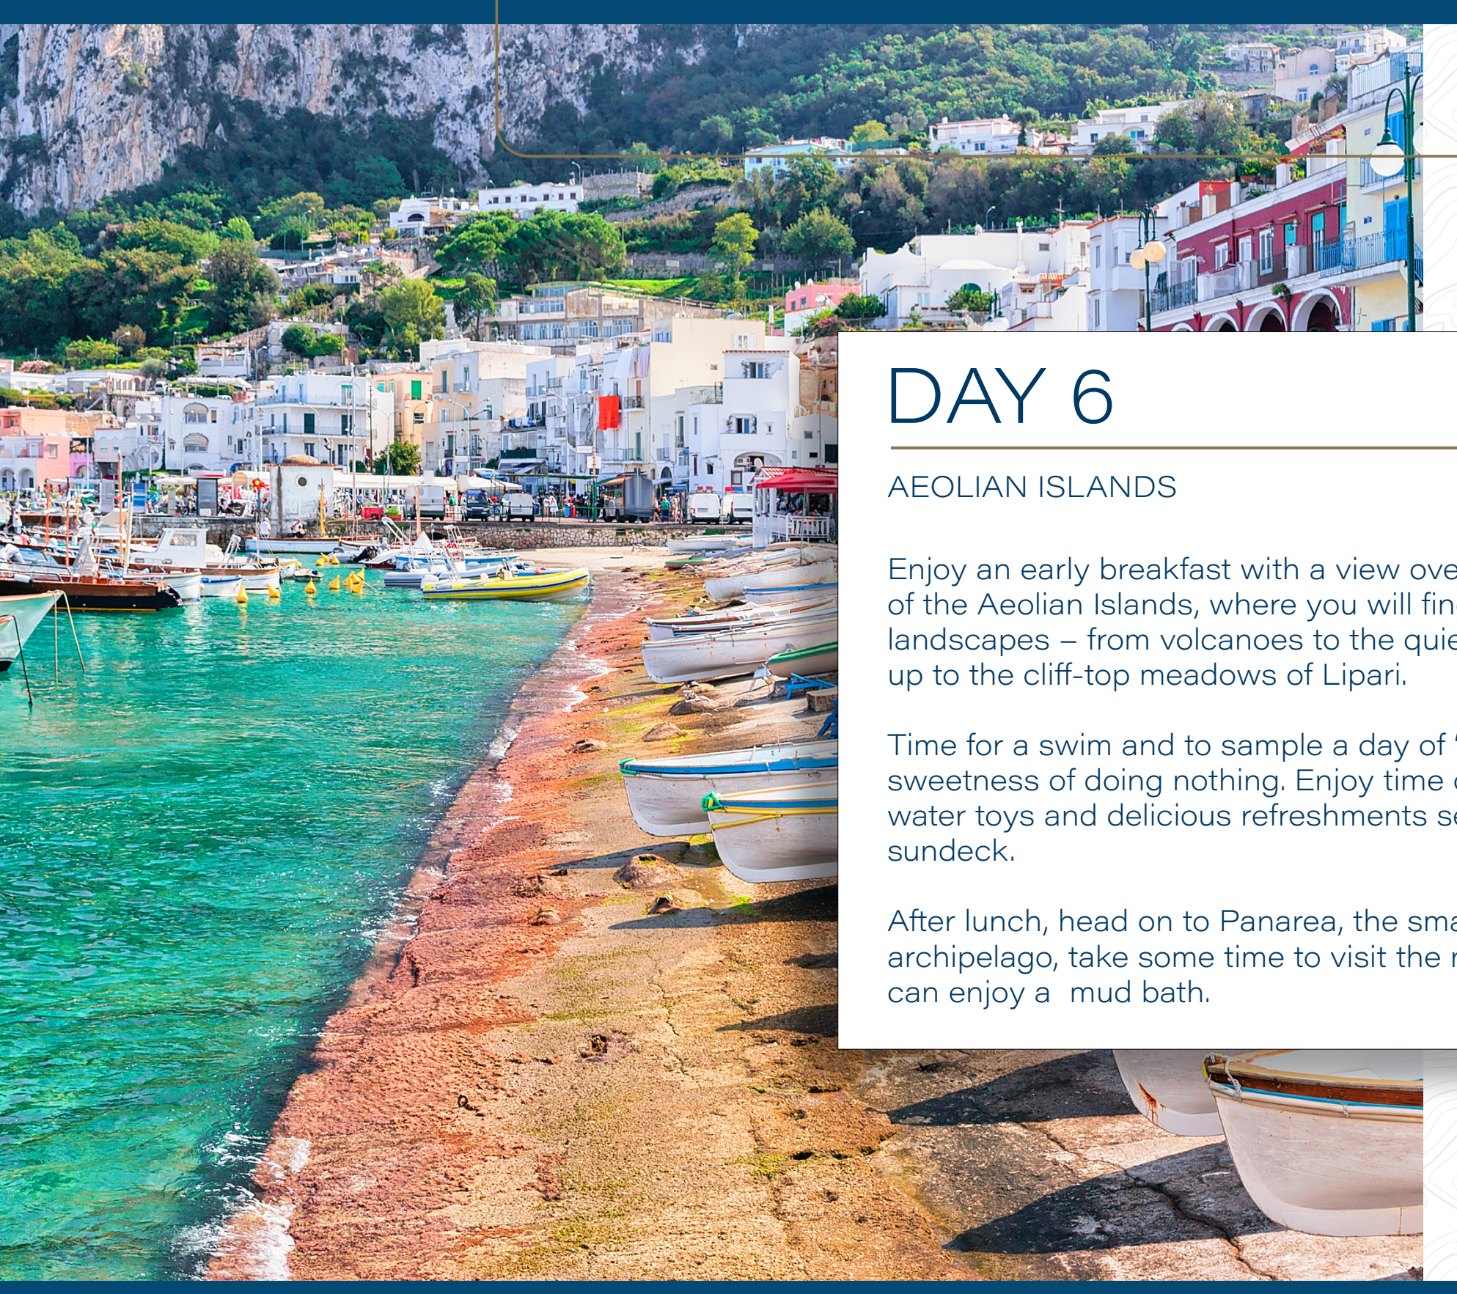
DAY 5

AMALFI TO STROMBOLI

The small but beautiful town of Amalfi lies below steep cliffs and offers sun-soaked piazzas and views of the Amalfi Coast's stunning blue waters. Delve into some ancient history, visiting sites such as the magnificent Amalfi Cathedral and the Cloister of Paradise.

To perfectly end this beautiful day, sail over to the island of Stromboli, one of the few still active volcanoes in the world. If you are lucky, you may even catch a glimpse of the volcanic eruptions lighting up the night sky. Anchor overnight near one of these enchanting islands.





DAY 6

AEOLIAN ISLANDS

Enjoy an early breakfast with a view over the mesmerising coasts of the Aeolian Islands, where you will find a vast range of unusual landscapes – from volcanoes to the quiet, sandy beaches of Salina up to the cliff-top meadows of Lipari.

Time for a swim and to sample a day of 'dolce far niente' – the sweetness of doing nothing. Enjoy time on board, with the many water toys and delicious refreshments served to you on the sundeck.

After lunch, head on to Panarea, the smallest island within this archipelago, take some time to visit the natural springs where you can enjoy a mud bath.

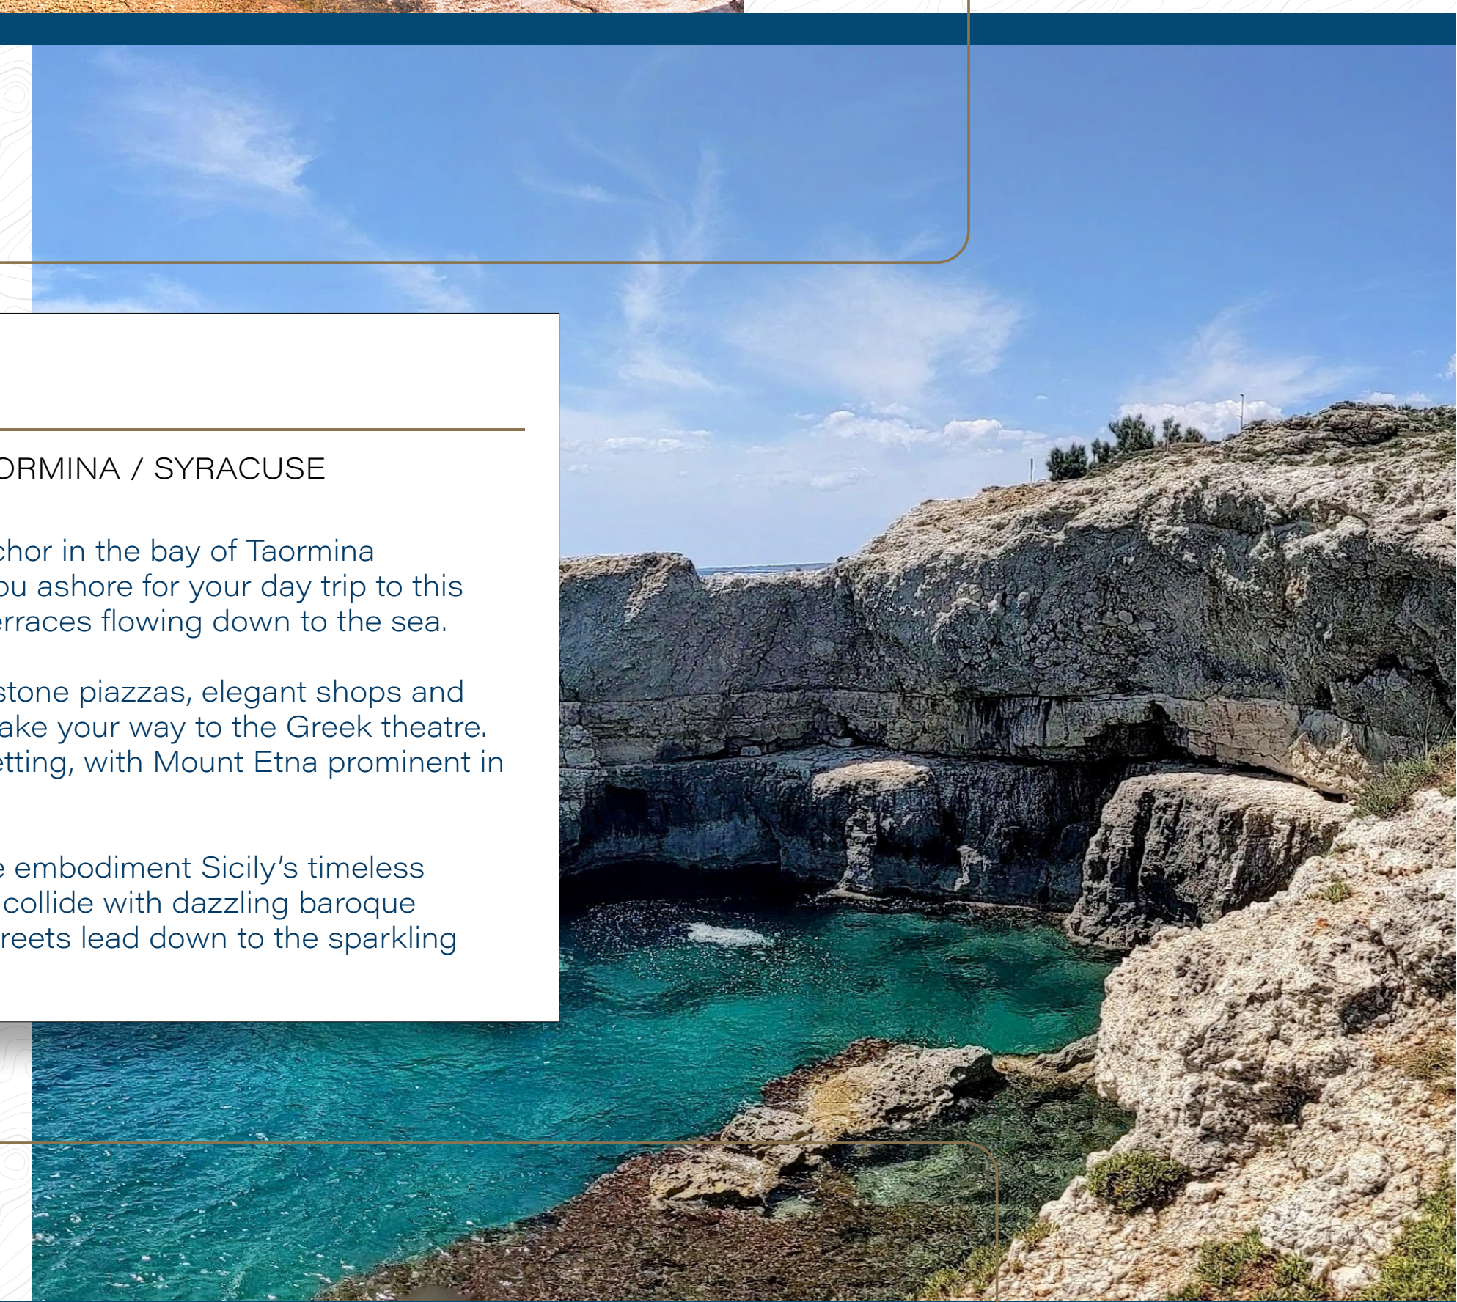
DAY 7

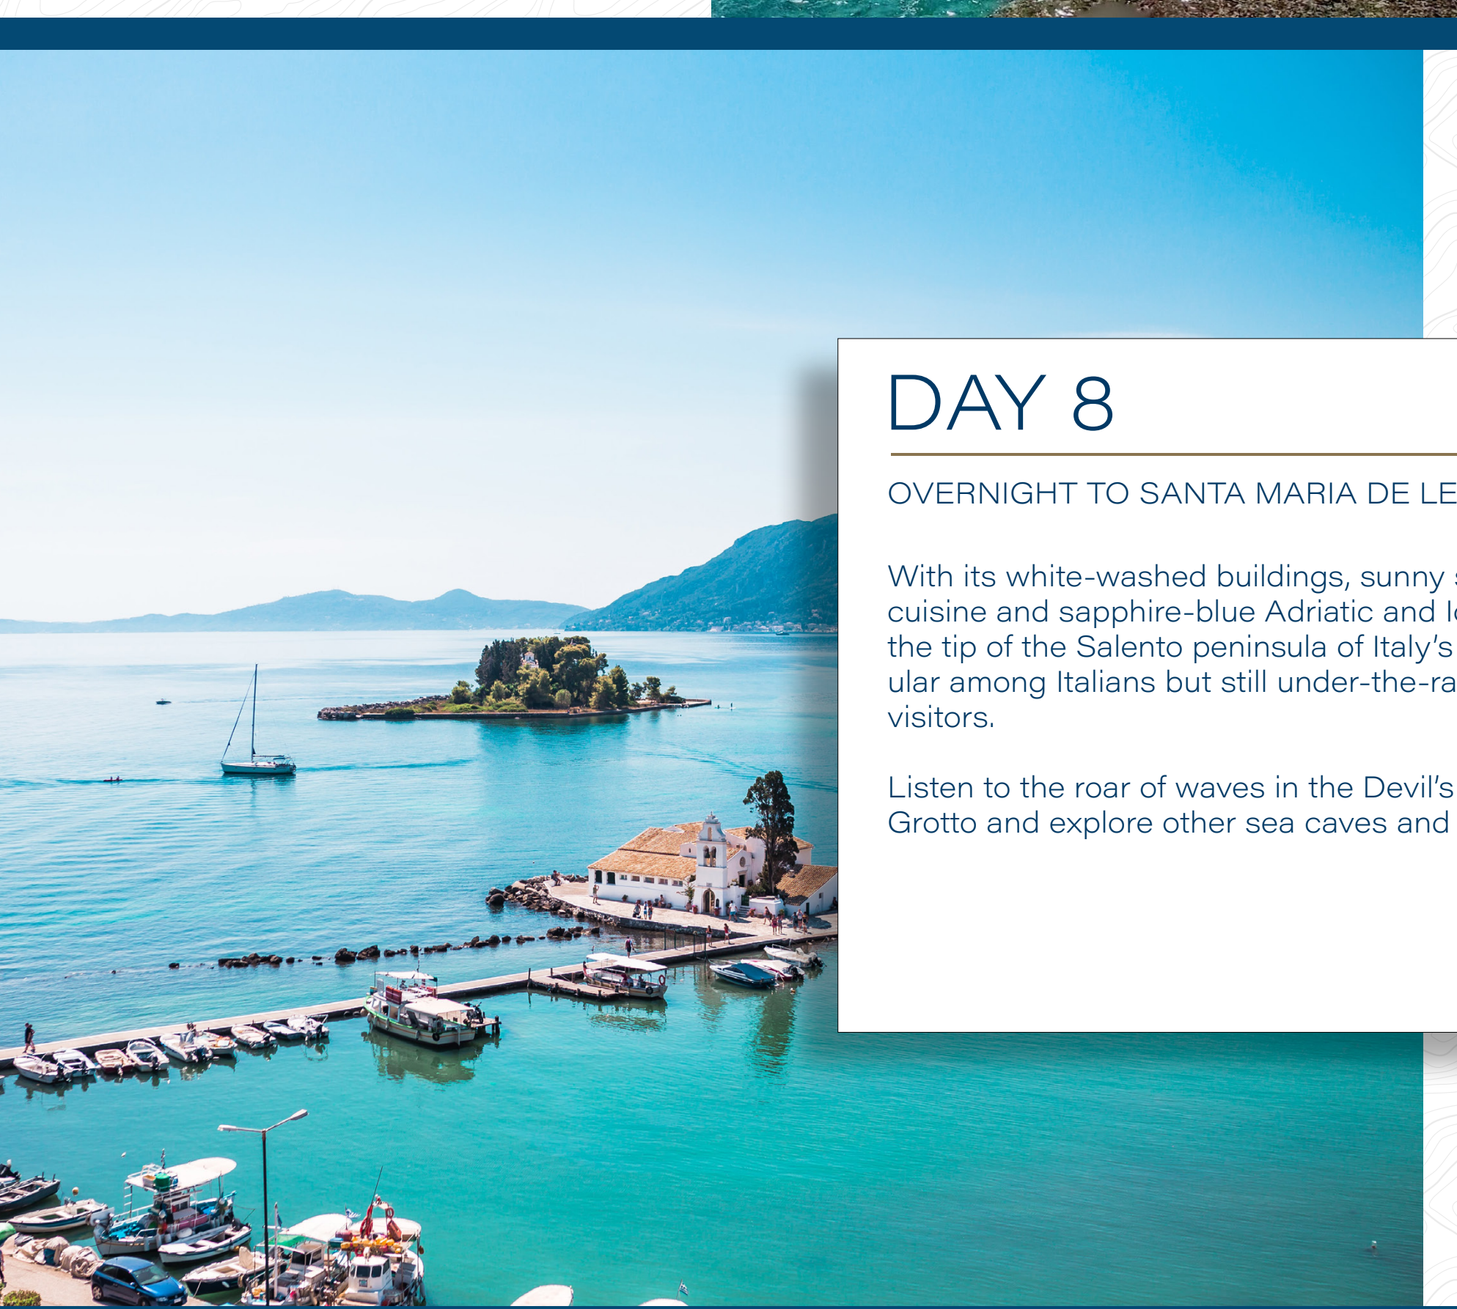
STRAIT OF MESSINA / TAORMINA / SYRACUSE

Buongiorno Sicilia! Drop anchor in the bay of Taormina where the tender will take you ashore for your day trip to this picturesque town, built on terraces flowing down to the sea.

Take a walk through cobblestone piazzas, elegant shops and charming cafes while you make your way to the Greek theatre. It is situated in a beautiful setting, with Mount Etna prominent in the background.

Later discover Syracuse, the embodiment Sicily's timeless beauty. Ancient Greek ruins collide with dazzling baroque piazzas while narrow side streets lead down to the sparkling blue sea.





DAY 8

OVERNIGHT TO SANTA MARIA DE LEUCA

With its white-washed buildings, sunny skies, delicious regional cuisine and sapphire-blue Adriatic and Ionian coastlines, this city at the tip of the Salento peninsula of Italy's "heel of the boot" is popular among Italians but still under-the-radar for most international visitors.

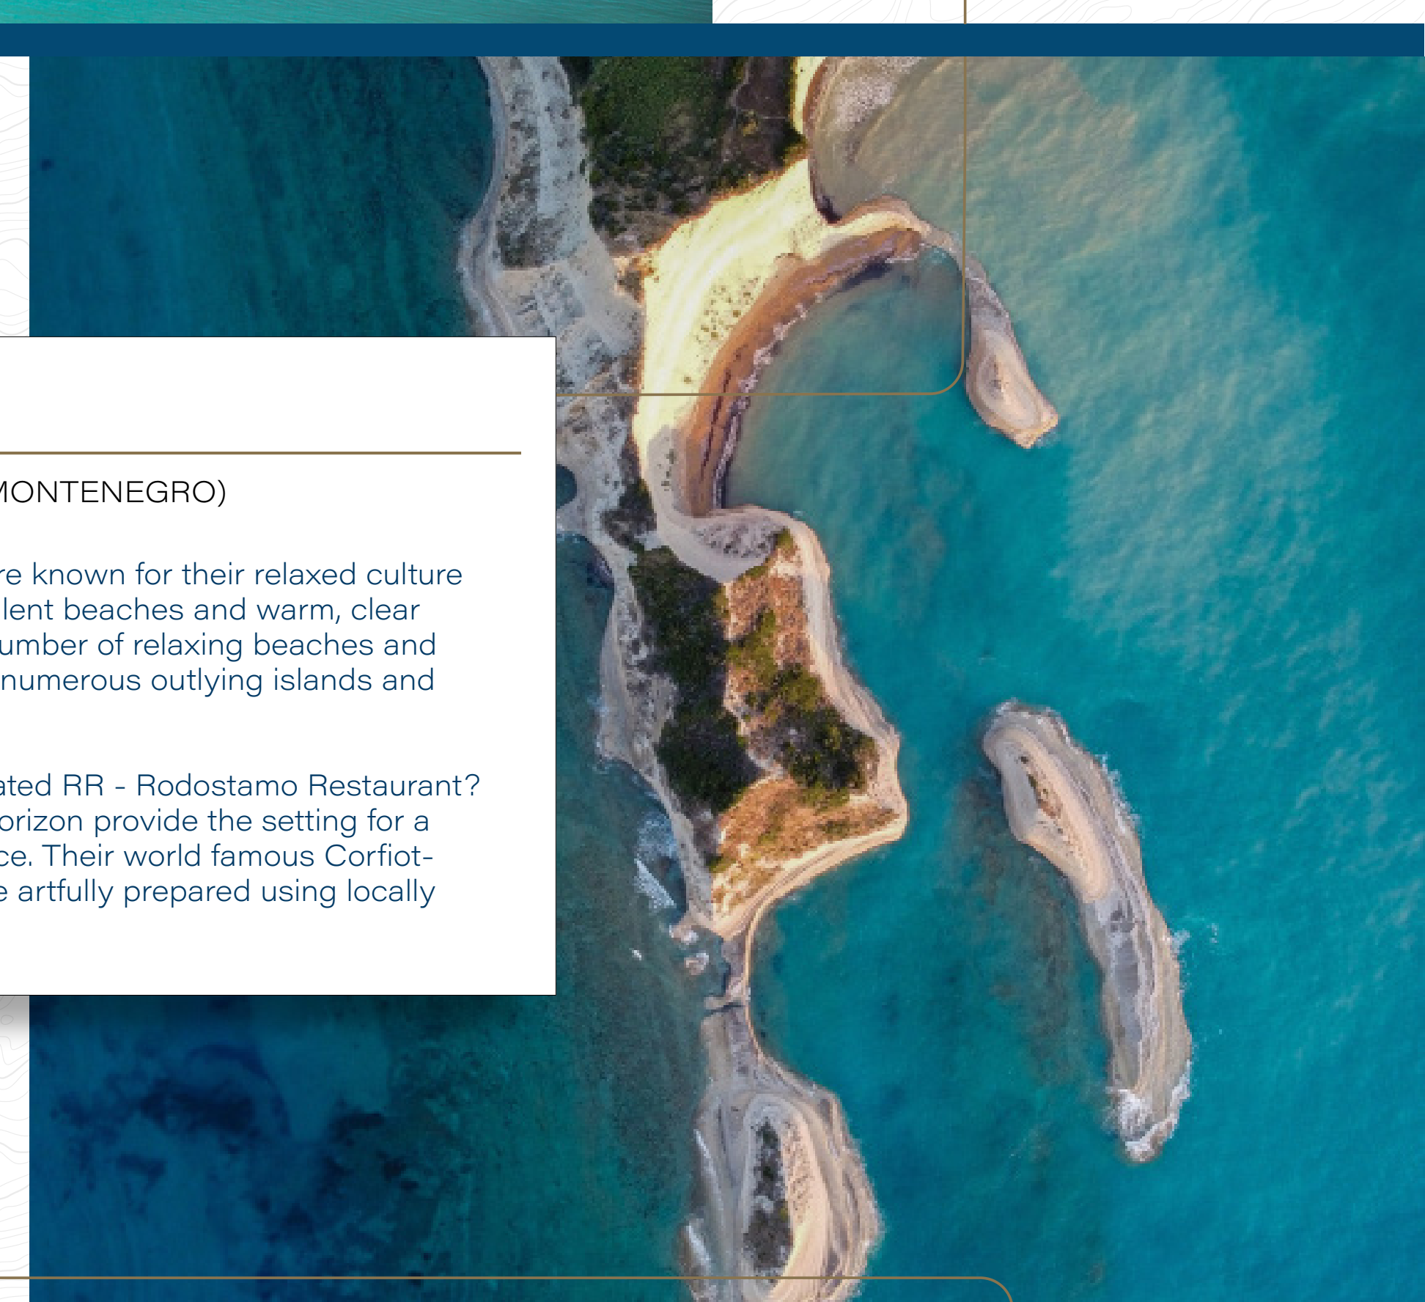
Listen to the roar of waves in the Devil's Grotto, peek into Lovers Grotto and explore other sea caves and secret beaches

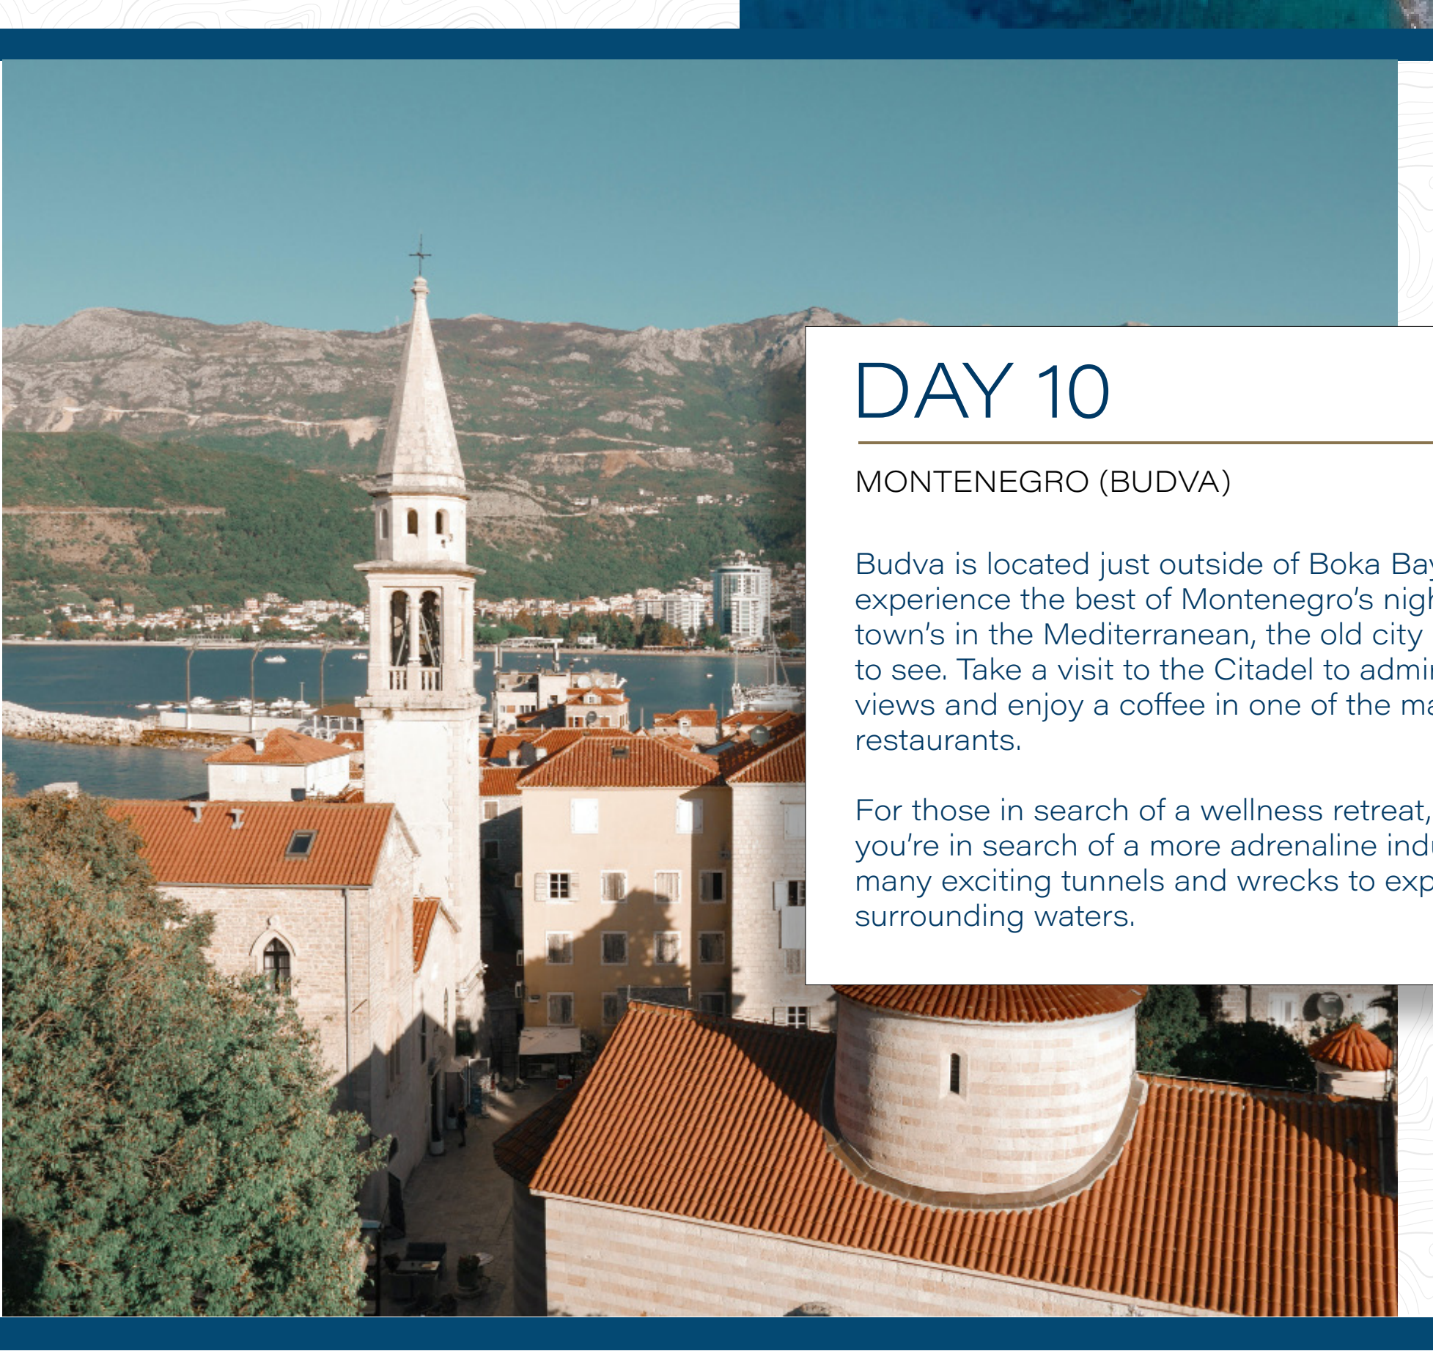
DAY 9

CORFU (OVERNIGHT TO MONTENEGRO)

The famous Ionian Islands are known for their relaxed culture and attractive scenery, excellent beaches and warm, clear waters. Corfu is home to a number of relaxing beaches and imposing castles, as well as numerous outlying islands and abundant native wildlife.

Why not dine at the highly rated RR - Rodostamo Restaurant? Extraordinary views to the horizon provide the setting for a distinctive culinary experience. Their world famous Corfiot-Mediterranean delicacies are artfully prepared using locally grown produce.





DAY 10

MONTENEGRO (BUDVA)

Budva is located just outside of Boka Bay, the place to be to experience the best of Montenegro's nightlife. Like many old town's in the Mediterranean, the old city remains are interesting to see. Take a visit to the Citadel to admire the spectacular views and enjoy a coffee in one of the many traditional cafes and restaurants.

For those in search of a wellness retreat, head to Villa Milocer. If you're in search of a more adrenaline inducing activity, there are many exciting tunnels and wrecks to explore when diving in the surrounding waters.

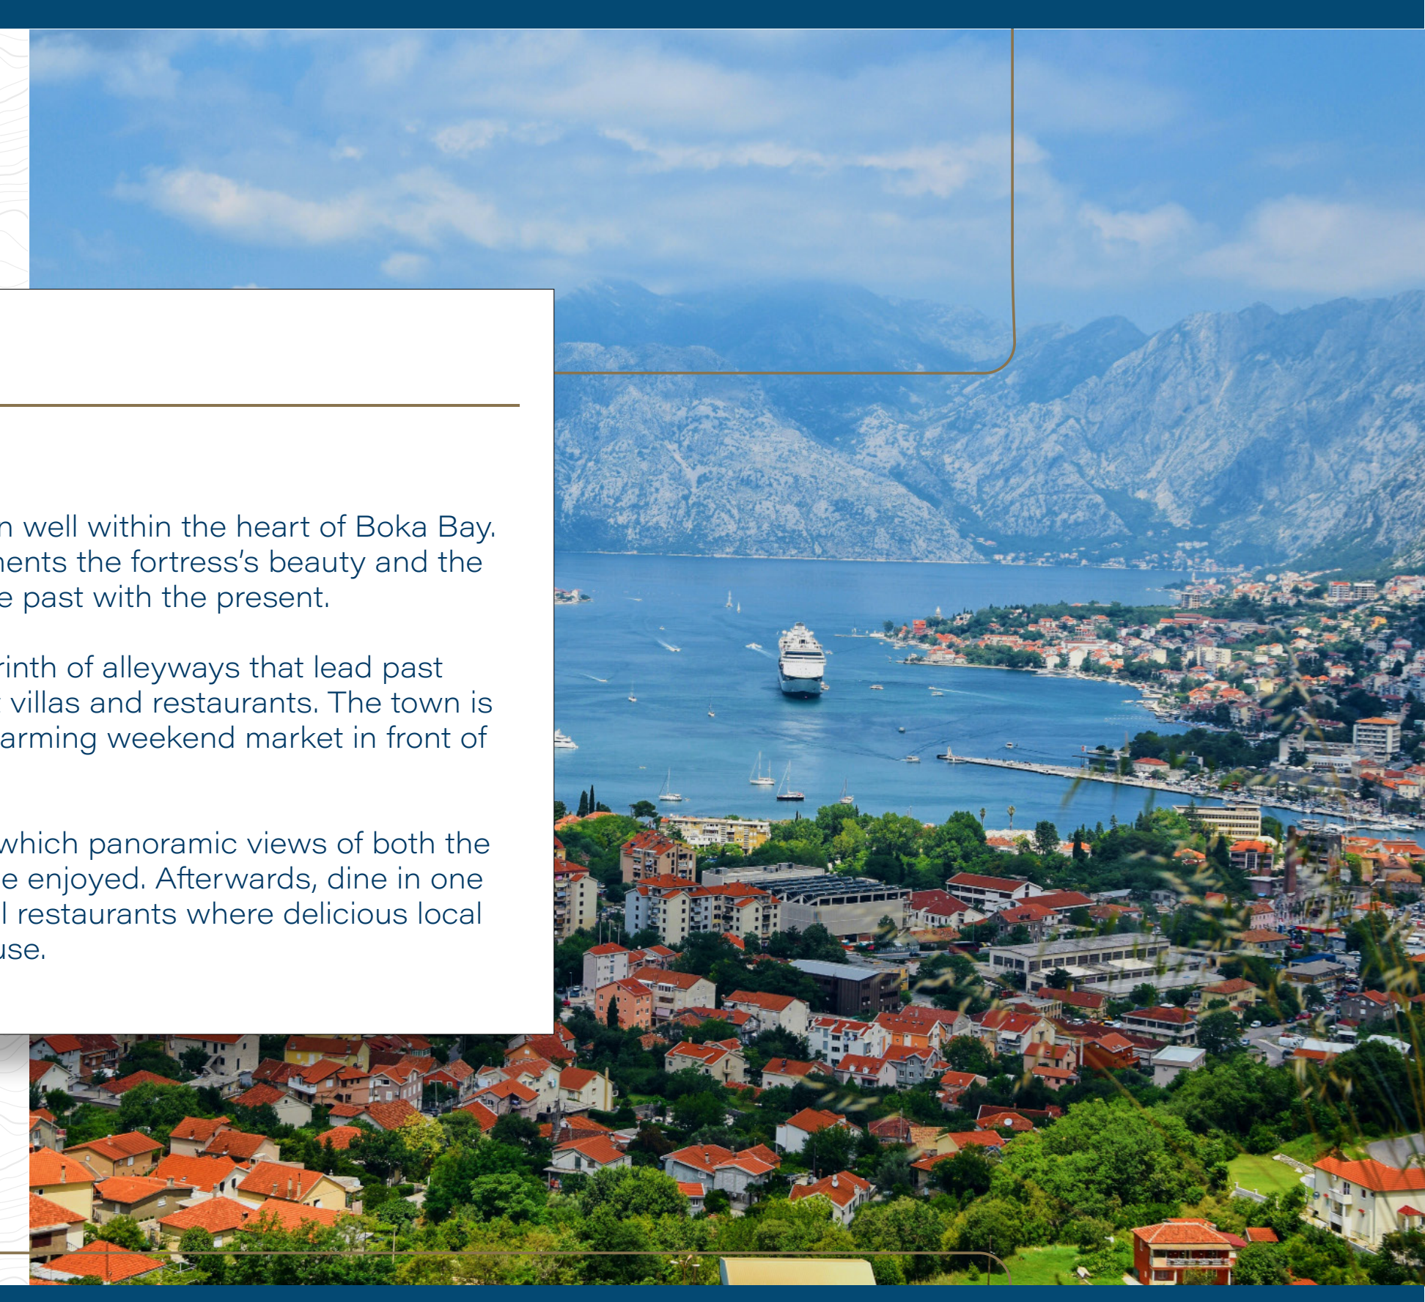
DAY 11

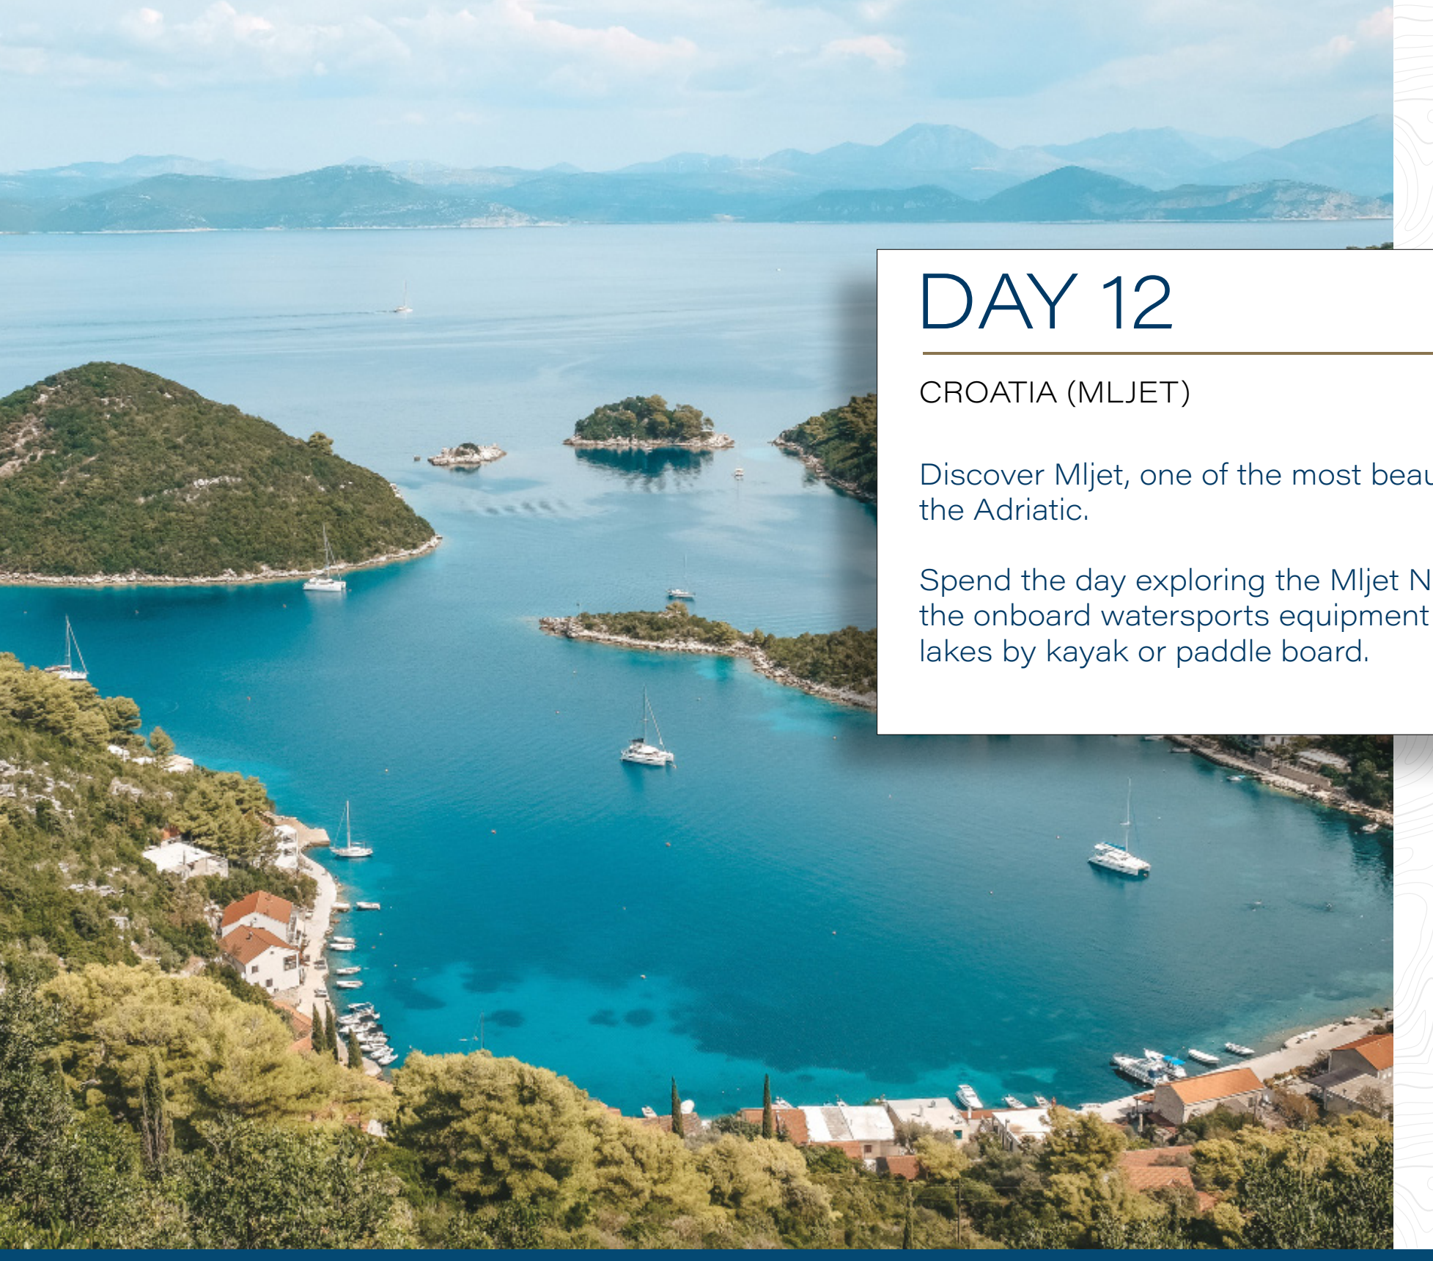
MONTENEGRO (KOTOR)

Kotor is an old Venetian town well within the heart of Boka Bay. Its cultural heritage complements the fortress's beauty and the old town, eloquently tying the past with the present.

Take a stroll through its labyrinth of alleyways that lead past museums, churches, ancient villas and restaurants. The town is renowned for its port and charming weekend market in front of the old walls.

Hike up to the fortress from which panoramic views of both the Bay of Kotor and Tivat can be enjoyed. Afterwards, dine in one of the many exceptional local restaurants where delicious local ingredients are put to good use.





DAY 12

CROATIA (MLJET)

Discover Mljet, one of the most beautiful and isolated islands in the Adriatic.

Spend the day exploring the Mljet National Park. Make use of the onboard watersports equipment and explore the saltwater lakes by kayak or paddle board.

DAY 13

SPLIT

Disembark in Split.

Discover the ancient imperial Roman palace which belonged to the Roman Emperor Diocletian and stroll through the narrow winding streets, where Roman, medieval and Renaissance buildings coexist alongside traditional cafes and galleries.

Charming cafes are to be found every step of the way, while in the modern part of town you will find plenty of high-end establishments serving modern and experimental cuisine, all with typical Croatian hospitality.
